IN RE: Application of Bandwidth.com CLEC, LLC to ) ORDER GRANTING Provide Resold Interexchange and Local ) EXTENSION FOR Exchange Telecommunications Services ) TESTIMONY NUNC PRO
Throughout South Carolina ) TUNC

This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (the Commission) on the request of Bandwidth.com CLEC, LLC (Bandwidth.com or Company) to extend the time to file testimony nunc pro tunc in the present proceeding. The present docket was established upon the filing of an application by Bandwidth.com on October 29, 2007, for authority to provide resold interexchange and local exchange telecommunication services in South Carolina.

The dates for filing testimony and exhibits in the proceeding were set forth in a letter, dated November 5, 2007, from the Commission's Docketing Department. By this letter, Bandwidth.com was required to file direct testimony and exhibits on or before December 27, 2007.

On January 2, 2008, Bandwidth.com's direct prefiled testimony was filed with the Commission and through the Company's counsel, Bandwidth.com requested approval that the date for testimony of the Company be extended to January 2, 2008.

Bandwidth.com asserted that due to the holiday schedule a final review of the testimony was delayed and therefore could not be timely filed.

We have examined the request of Bandwidth.com and have concluded that this request to extend the date for filing testimony and exhibits nunc pro tunc in this proceeding should be granted.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. The request of Bandwidth.com CLEC, LLC for an extension of time to prefile testimony from December 27, 2007, until January 2, 2008, is granted nunc pro tunc.

2. This Order shall remain in full force and effect until further order of the Commission.
